

Engaging with survivors of torture - what you need to know

- An introductory one day training for people who are new to working with refugees and asylum seekers who have experienced significant trauma and/or torture

Date: Thursday 8th March 2018

Time: 9.30 am - 4.45 pm (please arrive at 9.15 for registration)

Venue: Leeds: Leeds Church Institute LS1 6DG

Overall aim:

To support participants to engage with survivors of torture and/or trauma in their professional or voluntary roles

Learning objectives: By the end of the training participants will be able to:

- Explain what torture is and the impact it has on survivors
- Describe techniques for creating a safe relationship with survivors and building trust
- Talk about torture with clients / patients with increased confidence
- Explain what you can do in your own role to support survivors of torture and/or trauma
- Recognise the potential impact that working with survivors of torture may have on you

To book your place please follow this link:

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/training-engaging-with-survivors-of-torture-cpd-certified-tickets-41144036922>

Fee: £80

Please feel free to contact Gill Newman if you would like to talk about this training event or bespoke training for your team/organisation

gnewman@freedomfromtorture.org

Psychological Therapist and Trainer, Freedom from Torture Yorkshire & Humberside