

Our vision is for Leeds to be the best city in the UK: one that is compassionate with a strong economy; that tackles poverty and reduces the inequalities that still exist. We want Leeds to be a city that is fair and sustainable, ambitious, fun and creative for all. We will continue to work with others to achieve better outcomes for the city through a combination of innovation and efficiencies.

We want to live in an equal society that recognises different people's different needs, situations and goals, and removes barriers that limit what people can do and can be.

The council is legally required to:

- eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimisation;
- advance equality of opportunity;
- foster good relations within and between our communities with a view to building good community relations.

The Policy is in line with Leeds City Council's duties and responsibilities under the Equality Act 2010.

Our commitment is to create an environment for all citizens of Leeds:

- that promotes dignity and respect for all;
- where people are able to recognise, value and respect diversity and difference;
- where people are treated fairly and according to their needs;
- where people from different backgrounds and ages feel comfortable living alongside one another in communities;
- where no form of intimidation, bullying or harassment is tolerated;
- which tackles the issue of poverty for those both in work and out of work;
- where causes of unfairness are understood and addressed.

We will treat everyone with the same attention, courtesy and respect regardless of:

- Age,
- Disability,
- Race or racial group (including colour, nationality and ethnic origin or national origins),
- Religion or belief,
- Sex,
- Marriage and Civil Partnership,
- Gender reassignment/ gender identity,
- Pregnancy and maternity,
- Sexual orientation,
- Caring responsibilities,
- Social class,
- Trade union activity.

We will take all reasonable steps to ensure that we do not unlawfully discriminate.

This policy applies to:

- all council Members;
- all service users and those applying to access services;
- all contractors and sub-contractors;
- all employees, whether part-time, full-time or temporary, and all job applicants;
- all volunteers;
- all our partnership arrangements.

Roles and responsibilities

We live in a democratic society, with a legal framework which respects individual liberty, rights and responsibilities. This means we all have a right to be treated fairly, with dignity and mutual respect, and understand and embrace difference. For this to happen we all need to take responsibility for our actions and behaviours.

We recognise that less favourable treatment may still take place. This is clearly not in line with the Councils' values and priorities and is something we should strive to challenge, directly or through customer or staff complaints.

Principles

In all our activities we will:

- give due regard to equality and diversity when reviewing existing and developing new strategies, policies, services and functions to ensure that we:
 - provide excellent services;
 - secure flexible and fair working practices;
 - fairly award contracts, and commission services;
- engage and involve interested groups and individuals (both internal and external to the Council) within our decision making processes;
- deal with all complaints of discrimination, harassment or victimisation promptly and with sensitivity to all those involved;
- take all opportunities to advance equality of opportunity and foster good relations within and between our communities.

In delivering our services we will:

- assess the needs of our existing and potential service users and ensure fair access to our services. For example, making reasonable adjustments for disabled people and supporting women who choose to breastfeed, to use our services;
- ensure the availability of appropriate support services;
- provide access points for reporting hate crimes;
- work with and between communities to help develop and strengthen relationships and resilience.

In employment, learning and development we will:

- provide increased opportunities in areas of under-representation to create an inclusive workforce at all levels;
- continue to progress equal pay;
- promote and work towards a recognized living wage rate;
- assess the needs of our existing and potential disabled employees and provide all reasonable adjustments;
- take appropriate positive action in recruitment and selection;
- provide access to equality related training;
- ensure that every person who works for the Council has an appraisal and development plan.

Support to implement and monitor the policy

The Council has a range of policies and practices in place for all aspects of our work. They are all guided by this equality and diversity policy and support respectful behaviours. All are supported by appropriate training or briefing sessions and guidance provided by appropriate services.

- general and bespoke equality and diversity training is available through Human Resources; and
- advice and guidance is also available from the Communities Team central.

Key policies – such as those relating to employment, service delivery, community engagement, commissioning and procurement - are specifically designed to:

- promote equality of opportunity;
- protect people against unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimisation; and
- foster positive relationships with and between communities.

We collect and analyse data relating to these areas of policy, to identify trends and areas of inequality, and then take appropriate action.

Communications

The Equality and Diversity Policy is available on InSite and our external website. We will use all opportunities to promote the policy, for example: at induction events for new staff, at equality and diversity events, and within the procurement and commissioning process
