Develop your skills to read, write, and communicate in English with more confidence. Functional Skills courses help to improve language skills so that you communicate effectively, create work and study opportunities and help you learn key skills for employment and life. This adult English course helps you develop your language skills through real-life situations. Functional Skills courses are government-funded accredited English courses for adults. They are free if you don't already have a GCSE in English or Maths at grades A*-C, or 4-9.
